

2024 Scholars in Aging Projects

Bailee Brekke - Miami University

Older Adults with Substance Use Disorders (SUDs): How Can Policies and Programs Make a Difference?

Janice Buehrer – Bowling Green State University

Take a Closer Look: Combating Ageism Through the Use of Children's Literature

Emma Griffey – Ohio University

Building The Curriculum: Introducing Healthcare Professionals to Geriatric Care Early

Cara Harmon – Ohio University

Aging and Climate Change: Assessing Opportunities in Ohio's Strategic Action Plan on Aging

Alicia Howard – The Ohio State University

Measuring the Impact of a Peer Support Program between Age-Friendly Communities

Kiley Kinsey – Kent State University

Developing an Environment for Individuals with Dementia

Patrick Mese – Miami University

Achieving a Dementia Inclusive Community: Intervention of a Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) provider in the Cincinnati area

Kimberly Paulett – Youngstown State University

An Assessment of Robotics in Long Term Healthcare: A Pilot Study

Aditi Tarkar – University of Cincinnati

The Association Between Ultra-processed Foods and Cognitive Decline

Molly Taylor – Ohio University

Recognizing the Necessity: Introducing Healthcare Professionals to Geriatric Care Early